GROWTH PLANS

Jetion Holdings Limited (AIM:JHL), the manufacturer of solar cells and modules, announces its intention to continue to pursue its growth plans, which include expansion of its production capacity at its manufacturing facility in Jiangyin, China.

These growth plans are in keeping with the strong global demand for solar panel products. The Company is considering a number of capital raising alternatives, and has retained Houlihan Lokey, a leading international investment bank, to assist the Company in raising the financing required for its growth plans.
